

How to complain about the contents of Television or Radio Programmes

Send your complaints by letter to:

Ofcom Contact Centre
Ofcom
Riverside House
2a Southward Bridge Road
London SE1 9HA

Or telephone: 020 7981 3040

Include information regarding:

The television channel or programme was broadcast on.
The date and time of the broadcast.
The name of the programme
Full details of your complaint.

Issues they will consider are whether an item was:

Impartial.
Accurate
Offensive or harmful
Fair or affected anyone's privacy.

Produced by
Accrington Knights of Saint Columba

How to complain about the contents of Television or Radio Programmes

Send your complaints by letter to:

Ofcom Contact Centre
Ofcom
Riverside House
2a Southward Bridge Road
London SE1 9HA

Or telephone: 020 7981 3040

Include information regarding:

The television channel or programme was broadcast on.
The date and time of the broadcast.
The name of the programme
Full details of your complaint.

Issues they will consider are whether an item was:

Impartial.
Accurate
Offensive or harmful
Fair or affected anyone's privacy.

Produced by
Accrington Knights of Saint Columba

The Knights of Saint Columba have placed copies of this leaflet in churches as a guide to the methods of complaining to OFCOM about the blasphemous, immoral or corrupting content of either radio or television programmes.

An immediate response is required and it should always be sent within 24 hours of the offending broadcast taking place.

We are all responsible for falling standards.

Remember – “For what I have done and for what I have failed to do”.

Do not fail to prevent any further erosion of moral standards. Make a stand now and make a difference to us all.

The Knights of Saint Columba have placed copies of this leaflet in churches as a guide to the methods of complaining to OFCOM about the blasphemous, immoral or corrupting content of either radio or television programmes.

An immediate response is required and it should always be sent within 24 hours of the offending broadcast taking place.

We are all responsible for falling standards.

Remember – “For what I have done and for what I have failed to do”.

Do not fail to prevent any further erosion of moral standards. Make a stand now and make a difference to us all.