Reports

Action Jed Gregory Include report on action plan development

In the absence of Bro. Jed the action report was reviewed by BHo

- a) Talk by University Chaplain. It was agreed to consult Fr. Stamp to establish a date in late October or early November. In conversation with Fr. Stamp it was also established that the Chaplain could Not attend on Friday to speak with Mount Carmel children.
- b) Review of Mass times to be placed in Hotels. The GK contacted Fr. Stamp about the stability of current Mass times in this area.- awaiting confirmation.

Treasurer Brian Heap Include report on action plan development
Brian reported on the Councils finance including the trip to Ladywell which cost the Council £18-50. Christmas Posters now cost £14 per hundred. Important we hand them out and ask people to display them in their front window. It was suggested that 70 per church was enough to order.

Payment of items which could be described as benevolent could be paid from the Benevolent Account.

Deputy GK Paul Cain Include report on action plan development
Paul reported on the project to support the refuge family. Sean Kerr appears to be the contact person in the parish. A full account is to be found in the leaflet at the back of church.

Chancellor Paul Toman Include report on action plan development
Paul supplied the following information:-

- a) Iris Barratt appears to be in failing health
- b) Muriel Conway appears to have some health problem but is coping well
- c) Annette Darlow situation is complicated but is coping well
